Story Title

The Ballad of Mulan

Art Project

“Scrolls with Chinese Characters”

Story Summary: When Mulan disguises herself to take her father's place in the Emperor's army, she becomes a great general. The Emperor offers her anything her heart desires. Mulan chooses only one thing – a swift camel to return her to the family she has heroically fought to protect.

Houghton-Mifflin Teacher's Edition – pg. 530

Materials:

White construction paper cut lengthwise (vertically)
Black tempera paint
Small paper plates or cups (to distribute paint)
Pencils
Brushes
Student Anthologies

Directions:

1. Have students open anthologies to Content Link (pg. 89)
2. Students are to copy, in pencil, three or four Chinese characters lengthwise on paper.
3. Students will then trace over pencil with black paint.

Teacher Tip:

Have students close and put away their anthologies after tracing in pencil so that paint does not get on their books.

Story Title The Waterfall

Art Project “Hiking Collage”

Cut out things from a magazine that you may see on a hike.

Story Summary: A family’s backpacking adventure in the mountains leads to the discovery of an amazing waterfall – and to an exhilarating climb to the top of it.

Houghton-Mifflin Teacher’s Edition – pg. 92A

Materials:

Magazines suitable for cutting pictures from
Paper
Glue sticks

Directions:

1. Explain to students what a collage is, with visual examples if possible.
2. Pass out paper and magazines to students.
3. Have students cut out things they would see in nature and arrange pictures in a collage on their background paper.

Teacher Tip:

The concept of a collage was new to my students. It will be helpful to have an example.
